

Nathalee Yang

6524 Apple st. San diego, CA 6233

(909)339-5547

John Doe@gmail.com

Objective: As a current public health student, I hope to utilize my abilities as a motivated and effective communicator to successfully meet your organization's goals on progressing extensive pediatrics research. I hope to gain more insight on the opportunities this position offers in order to assist in a quick and effective matter.

Experiences/Internships

UCSD Pediatric Department Mother to Baby Student Research Data Assistant Position

June 2023-Present day

- Organized and scanned collected data such as interviews, medical records, charts of documents electronically into correct file locations
- Confirmed that collected data matches with participants in the study
- Communicate with data team members to assure placements of the collected data

Planned Parenthood

December 2019

- Assisted low socioeconomic families by educating them on the importance of healthcare matters such as STDs by providing posters around the school elevators and office buildings
- Designed and presented a campaign for students in the youth community on their healthcare rights which included informing them on which resources are available in the community and effective ways to safely practice healthcare
- Advocated for spreading awareness of Planned Parenthood equitable resources and accessibility in the community, especially in minority and youthful neighborhoods

San Diego Zoo

May 2019

- Upheld a retail associate position during the summer; assisted as a food clerk in two different locations on-site
- Clerical duties included primary cashier, responsible for maintain and handling correct money via checks, bills, and cards between each customer
- Enthusiastically greeted customers in a considerate and professional manner while promoting store sales and answering various questions pertaining to resources and attractions offered
- Engaged in an increasingly fast-paced environment during weekends and peak seasons while maintaining sales goal individually as well as collectively in a team

Volunteer Stellar Care

November 2018

- Engaged in hosting activities with geriatric seniors that supports building relationships amongst each other, gaining personal insight on various cultures and lifestyles; being exposed to different ethnicities creates an adaptation to the unique characteristics each individual acquires
- Assisted in serving food daily to seniors for three full meals
- Strengthened communicative skills through interactions by initiating conversations such as seeking assistance, understanding their needs and wants, and fulfilling their desires

Education

University of California, San Diego 2020 - Current

Major: Public Health with a concentration in Epidemiology

Minoring: Marketing

Extracurriculars

Rady Children's Hospital FACES for the Future Program    September 2018-2021

- 3 year continuous program providing exploration of various health careers for students by organizing guest speakers after school and checking in students for their attendance to Rady events
- Voluntarily committed over 25+ hours of career preparation on weekdays and weekends for a duration of time to provide assistance to students

First Generation Scholars Club

September 2020-2021

- Program aided towards first generation Southeast Asian students with college application by having a mentor; Brainstormed and revised personal statement essays to effectively communicate higher educational goals
- Committed member of the Media Agency team within to promote and recruit additional aspiring students; utilized creative outlets on social media platforms to portray aesthetic infographics; Managed the club's main website with the designs of student's blogs

Healthy Skin Initiative Organization

September 2022-Present day

- A student run organization educating UCSD Students on skin health and invites conversation on different skin care and products
- Committed member who attends meetings and various workshops

Skills

- Bilingual - fluent in Hmong and English
- Creative
- Organized
- Self-reliant and also a team player
- Motivated